One period on which percentage of increased business was calculated was from Oct. 14, 1961 through Nov. 10, 1961. During this period receipts surged upward to the tune of 129 percent increase.

Mrs. Smith pointed out that receipts from the Bryant post office, which is a branch of the local office, accounted for its proportionate share of the increase. The council authorized City Attorney Ralph Johnson and City Engineer Elliott Gross to go to Tallahassee in the near future to negotiate with Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund regarding approximately 57 acres the city is trying to obtain for a rock-pit and sewage disposal area. The acreage is said to be in Section 19 in the southern part of the city.

No one appeared in protest of the request and the council directed the city attorney to draft an ordinance to amend the existing zoning ordinance to so conform.

Police Chief Says Thanks For Assistants

Chief Guthrie gave credit to the Highway Patrol, the Sheriff's office and the Belle Glade Police Department for the fine cooperation.

Britt had taken several articles from the store including a portable TV, a sewing machine, a radio, two rolls of stamps and about $20 in cash. Evidently he wasn't as quiet as he should have been to complete the job without detection. A resident of the neighborhood where the store is located heard some unusual noise. The police were notified.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

The U. S. Attorney General advised the county commission this week that the federal department intends to look into situations where a number of like bids are submitted by several firms bidding on county invitation.

In some instances in the past, the commission has received several bids — to the exact penny — on products or services the board had planned to purchase.

The Attorney General asked that the office be advised of any such like bids in future lettings.

In other actions this week, the commission:

Heard that the county agent wished to keep a West Palm Beach canning center in operation so that land on which the plant is located would not be available for parking lot purposes.

Voted to advertise a bridge tenders house and some adjacent land at Boca Raton for sale to the highest bidder. Base bid is $4,475.

Authorized the county engineer to work out a right of way agreement for improvement of One Mile Road west of Delray Beach.

Voted to call for bids for resurfacing 1.5 miles of Airport Road east of State Road 15 in the Glades.

expected to hit record levels this year and next. Consequently, we may expect to see increasing pressure for some kind of marketing order, which has been made possible by recent national legislation aimed at curtailing turkey output. Some doubt has been expressed that such an order can become effective in time to have much influence on the 1962 crop.

I heard a story the other day about a farmer who owned a prize-winning turkey. As he passed a pet shop in town he was astonished to see a $100 price tag on a mean looking parrot in the window. He rushed home, caked his turkey, brought it to the pet shop and informed the proprietor he could have the bird for only $200.

"You must be joking," said the pet shop owner.

"No, sir," said the farmer. "If that mangy looking parrot in the window is worth $100 then this wonderful turkey should be priced at $300."

"But my parrot talks," protested the shop owner. "What can the fool turkey do?"

"My turkey," said the farmer visibly swelling with pride, "is a philosopher. He thinks."

What are people thinking about at this time of year? Why, Thanksgiving, of course, and probably about the traditional turkey dinner that has been a Holiday institution in America since the days of the Pilgrims.

Millions of America housewives will be buying their turkeys at the food store. But I know a number of Florida Nimrod's who'd be insulted if you asked them how big a turkey they plan to buy. They wouldn't dream of BUYING a turkey—they shoot theirs, and wild turkey is served in many a Florida household on Thanksgiving Day.

But turkeys are in abundant supply and prices are the most reasonable in a longtime. Housewives have the opportunity now to stock up—if they have storage capacity available—with some of these succulent birds to add variety to the meals they plan. We're fortunate to have turkeys on the market today in sizes to suit the needs of small or large families.

There was a time in the past when most American families had turkey only as a Holiday treat—for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Today we can eat turkey the year 'round, whether we eat at home or dine out.

Native to America, the turkey is our country's only contribution to the domestic fowl family. Even before the Spaniards first set foot on our hemisphere, the turkey is believed to have been domesticated by the Aztecs of Mexico and from there was introduced into Europe about 1519.

Turkey raising in Florida, like other poultry production here, has expanded greatly in recent years. Cash receipts from turkeys in 1943 totaled slightly more than half-a-million dollars. The latest available yearly estimate (for 1959) shows a total cash income for the turkey crop of $2,130,000.

In 1943 Florida farmers sold 97,000 of the big birds. In 1959 this volume had increased to 467,000.

It is probable our turkey production in this state showed another increase this year. According to recent estimates, the U. S. turkey crop in 1961 is nearly 107 million birds, up 26 per cent from a year ago.

Here's another case of over-production resulting from producers' failure to heed the official market statistics which had forecast such a situation. As a result, U. S. farm prices for turkeys are expected to average only about 20 cents at this time.

In spite of the low prices and anticipated higher feed costs, some trade reports are forecasting a 1962 turkey crop equal to, or even larger than, this year's total.

Government purchases are not expected to offer much relief, and cold storage holdings of turkey are

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{4}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH

U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

Levees Opened To Licensed Hunters

Two major levees which afford access for vehicles to some of the best hunting lands in Florida are being opened to the public this week by the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District.

Riley S. Miles of Kissimmee, Chairman of the FCD Governing Board, said the levees will be opened for the duration of the seven-week hunting season which opens Saturday, November 18th.

Sportsmen can enter Water Conservation Area No. 3—a State-Owned tract of 914 square miles in Broward and Dade Counties—by way of the levee along the Miami Canal in Palm Beach County. This levee extends from U. S. 27, at Lake Harbor, south to the Broward County line which forms the northern boundary of the conservation area. Vehicles may now use this levee to reach the levee at the western side of the conservation area from which swamp buggies can be launched.

The levee at the northwest edge of Conservation Area No. 2—a 210-square-mile tract in Palm Beach and Broward Counties—will also be opened to sportsmen. This levee can be reached by way of State Road 827 (Brown's Farm Road) along the Hillsboro Canal, in Palm Beach County.

In addition to the new vehicle access routes, indicated on the map, several boat-launching facilities will be open as usual to sportsmen who wish to use FCD canals in Palm Beach, Hendry, Broward and Dade Counties. Locations of boat-launching facilities are indicated by circles on the map. Airboats can be launched at many of the sites, though with low water conditions this year airboating is greatly restricted. Conservation Areas No. 2 and No. 3 are supervised by the Florida State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. Good sized herds of deer are reported in the conservation areas. Excellent opportunities to hunt wild hogs and waterfowl are also available. Information on hunting and fishing regulations should be obtained from the Game and Fish Commission.

Savings Stamps On Sale At Local P. O.

Canal Point Postmaster Edythe Smith said today she had received a letter from William H. Neal, National Director of the U. S. Savings Bond Program, commending the local post office for the promotion and sale of Savings Stamps during the past year.

"In this 20th anniversary year of the United States Savings Bond Program," the letter read, "Americans in all walks of life, in communities throughout the country, own more than $44 billion in Series E and H Savings Bonds — an all time record. You have had a real share in this success, and we in the Treasury are grateful for your efforts over the years to promote the sale of Savings Stamps and Bonds in behalf of your country."

"In these critical times, the sale of Savings Stamps and Bonds affords young and old alike an opportunity to help their country as they help themselves. To the extent that we can increase our sales, to the same extent do we strengthen the foundations of our national economy, upon which rests our efforts to preserve the peace and promote the general welfare of all people."

Postmaster Smith reminds the public that Savings Stamps are on sale at the post office at all times. Adults can buy them, too, she added an easy way to buy Savings Bonds on the installment plan."

"Today we need a nation of Minute Men citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life"

—JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

10 days after his inauguration as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unremitting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

 "Where you are a stranger but once"

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The availability here and now of the healing power of the Christ. Truth, will be stressed at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Luke's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the "woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise hit up herself" is included in the Scriptural readings. "Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this passage will be read: "God will heal the sick through man, whenever man is governed by God. Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago. All of Truth is not understood; hence its healing power is not fully demonstrated" (p. 495).

The Golden Text is from Psalm 90: "Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. . . . Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children."

Miss Joanne Todd Honored At Shower

Mrs. Bill Shackford, Mrs. Milton Douglas, Mrs. Jimmy Wilson, Mrs. Leon Spooner and Mrs. G. H. Tucker, Sr. were co-hostesses.

A color note of pink and white were used throughout the home and in the cakes and mints on the refreshment table, small white umbrellas with white Mums were the highlights of the gift table. An arrangement of white Mums interspersed with pink was the centerpiece.

Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Todd, and the honoree were in the receiving line. Corsages of white Mums were presented to Miss Todd, her mother Mrs. Owen Todd, maternal grandmother, Mrs. Fred Collier of Vero Beach, her paternal grandmother, Mrs. C. M. Todd, of Pahokee and her paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Fannie A. Todd, of Canal Point also to Mrs. A. J. Gamot, Sr. A brides book was the hostesses gift to the honoree.

Presbyterian To Augment College

ST. PETERSBURG — Florida Presbyterian College, citing its area's rapid growth as a space-age science center, today announced it will offer academic work leading to engineering degrees.

Freshmen entering the college next fall can begin work toward two degrees — a bachelor of science after four years, a bachelor of engineering after five. All course offerings will exceed accreditation standards, Dr. William H. Kadel, the college's president, said.

The new program will fill a new demand — engineers, thoroughly trained in their specialties but having a wellrounded education in other fields, Dr. Kadel added.

"Leading educators across the nation are recognizing the importance of infusing technical education with liberal arts courses," he said. "They see the need for engineers being able to communicate both with each other and with others outside their profession."

Florida Presbyterian, which began undergraduate classes in 1960, will start moving its operations to a new bayfront campus next fall. It now occupies the former Maritime Base near downtown St. Petersburg.

The engineering plan, Dr. Kadel said, arises out of the college's basic philosophy — "which is concerned with the whole man."

"We feel it will be essentially easier for us to solve the problems facing technical education when we approach them as a liberal arts college, for our philosophy is already established and we will not need to change it," the college president noted.

The new program is designed to more than meet the standards of the Engineering Council for Professional Development, the leading accreditation agency in this field, Dr. Kadel said. New faculty would be added as the beginning students move into their specialization in the fall of 1964.

Present plans indicate majors may be offered in electronic and mechanical engineering, possibly adding chemical engineering. The college's mathematics and natural sciences divisions now offers majors in biology, chemistry, mathematics and physics. It has eight teachers in these fields, all with earned doctorates.

SALUTE TO FLORIDA COUNTIES • ST. JOHNS

COUNTY SEAT... ST. AUGUSTINE

St. Johns County was named after the St. Johns River, first called "San Juan Baptista" by early Spanish explorers in honor of St. John the Baptist.

The site of St. Augustine, the county seat, was first visited by Ponce de Leon in 1513 on his quest for the Fountain of Youth.

The principal sources of income for the county are tourism, general agriculture and commercial fishing. Oranges, grapefruit, grapes, peaches, Japanese persimmons, pears, plums, and pecans are also grown here.

In progressive St. Johns county, and throughout Florida, the United States Brewers Association works constantly to maintain the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of the people of Florida, the Association stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials.
